Announcements

- Don't vote against your values. This webinar is to help you to be informed, to help you vote wisely.
- There is also election information on our website, eagleforumca.com/ca-voter-guides.
- You should have your sample ballot handy to mark.
- Don't trust any "voter guides" you receive in the mail.

1. How to Research Candidates

Randy Thomasson lists simple steps to research candidates online.

A. Simple steps to research candidates online

1. Have your sample ballot in front of you.
2. Search candidate's name and office on line.
3. Search the candidate's name and a key word, i.e., pandemic.
   https://savecalifornia.com/elections/
4. Do this for each candidate.
5. Visit their websites.
6. Email the candidate to ask a specific question.

B. Learn from voting records and endorsements.

C. Don't trust any "voter guides" you receive in the mail.

D. Warning. Some "conservative' and "Christian" voter guides list candidates who support the "LGBTQIA+" agenda.

2. Hilton-Becerra Comparison

SaveCalifornia.com

California Election Center

Very Helpful Hilton-Becerra Comparison by Randy Thomasson

Here are 15 public policy positions of Steve Hilton and Xavier Becerra, based on their statements, actions, and records, and presented in three important categories, Fiscal Issues, Social Issues and Moral/Family Issues.

What a candidate has actually done is most important, followed by their public policy actions, followed by their public policy promises.

See list on the following website.

What a Good Governor Can and Should do, by Randy Thomasson

There are five good things a mostly-conservative governor can and should do:

1. He can veto all the bad bills – protecting Californians for four years.

2. He can destroy the evil Newsom administration by replacing the leadership of all California's 200+ departments, commissions, boards, panels, bureaus, and offices, and ordering them to "clean house."

3. He can appoint constitutional judges (the governor gets to appoint state judges to vacant judicial seats, around 100 per year).

4. He can set a new standard of good government, with his good deeds lasting beyond his administration (such as building dams and reinstituting the death penalty for murderers).

5. He can use his “bully pulpit” to educate Californians about the difference between good and evil, with myriad examples of waste, fraud, and abuse, at the very least.

And he can do much more, such as calling special legislative sessions to address one big problem at a time, and deploying the California National Guard to preserve public safety.
March 2026, Save California, Randy Thomasson

6. Voting for School and City Council Board Members Examples

School board candidate example

Rick Nichols, candidate for FV School Board Goals:
School board candidate positions on issues

- Preserve what makes schools exceptional
- Support dedicated educators.
- Ensure every student is prepared for a successful future.

Prioritize:

- Student and campus safety.
- Maintain high academic standards for all students.
- Attract and retain highly qualified teachers and staff.
- Ensure fiscal responsibility.
- Promote local control of education.

City Council Candidate example

Dan Hay, candidate for FV City Council, Goals:

- Keep Fountain Valley safe. Support strong public safety and protect our neighborhoods.
- Bring accountability to city hall. Transparent decisions and responsible use of taxpayer dollars.
- Protect our community. Common-sense approach to development and local issues.
- Preserve our quality of life. Keep Fountain Valley the kind of place families are proud to call home.

Andrew Gruel, candidate for HB City Council, Local Town Goals:

- Safe community, good schools, low crime
- Strong churches, nonprofits, sport teams

- Low tax rate, financially strong
- Clean streets, parks and beaches
- Historic library and decreased homelessness
- Controlled high-density
- “The only role of government is two things. Provide public safety and infrastructure. The third role is to get out of the way, to then allow the economic development that funds number one and two.” We are a constitutional republic with a check and balance.

Craig Alexander
Craigs' Picks - Craig Alexander's Conservative OC Voter Guide
Craig is an attorney and a knowledgeable, conservative activist in OC. He is the past President of a local CRA chapter, a past VP of the CRA, and is a former OC Republican Central Committee member.

Statewide Initiatives / Propositions:

	Craig's Recommendation
State Ballot Propositions	There are a lot of propositions on this November's ballot. Kudos to my friend Jon Fleischman and his recommendations at his So, Does It Matter? web site. https://www.sodoesitmatter.com/p/our-official-ca-2026-general-election If you are not already a subscriber to Jon's newsletter I highly recommend you join.
Prop. 1	Borrows $11.25 billion for housing projects – NO. This is a bond measure and California is already awash in bond debt. We do not need any more. Also, only a small fraction of the money would go to veterans housing.
Prop. 2	Modifies State Rainy Day Fund – the wrong way. Also called the Save for California's Future Act – NO. It claims to increase the rainy day fund but weakens the safe guards for the current fund.
Prop. 3	Permanent Funding for Schools and Health Care by making "temporary" tax increases permanent. No. Remember about ten or so years ago when the California Teachers Association urged Californias vote for "temporary" higher taxes due to the economic downturn of 2010? Well here they are again wanting these "temporary" higher taxes to become permanent even though the financial crisis is long over. These "temporary tax increases" need to expire and the declining enrollment school system needs to learn to live within its means. Please vote NO!
Prop. 4	Your Tax Money to Finance Political Campaigns! – No. This is a form of taxpayer dollars paying for politician's political campaigns. Public funding of political campaigns is always a bad idea.
Prop. 5	Changes in the Recall Election Process for Statewide Officers – No. This would handicap the recall process. It is an incumbent protection proposition.
Prop. 37	Loan Program for Middle-Income Buyers – No. This is nothing more than a taxpayer funding for housing. The proper way to increase housing supply is to remove costly regulations to expand home building to make homes less expensive. Prop. 37 does NOT do that.
Prop. 38	Bonds for Immunology Medial Research (including for unborn aborted fetuses) - No. When the last two rounds of this bond effort were sold to the voters in past years it was promised that this would fund many, many medical breakthroughs.

	Those promises fell flat. Very flat. Please vote No.
Prop. 39	Voter Identification and Citizenship Verification Requirements – YES. This is Voter ID and it is a long time coming. It is a common sense vote. You must show you ID to get on a plane, to buy a firearm, to purchase alcohol, etc., etc. But not to vote! That is not logical or right!!! Please vote YES and get your friends to vote yes as well.
Prop. 40	The So Called Billionaire Tax - NO. There is not enough room on this guide to give you all of the reasons to vote NO on Prop. 40. Let me list one that should get everyone's attention – if this passes, in future years the state legislature can (and will) lower the wealth amount needed to trigger the tax to capture all of us in its wealth tax trap. And it is a wealth tax – your home's equity and your IRA would count towards the total to calculate the tax and you would have to come up with the 5% tax in cash on that amount each and every year. Have a lot of equity in your house but not a lot of cash in the bank – you get to sell your home to pay the tax or borrow to pay the tax – every year!!!! Vote NO.
Prop. 41	Audit of Programs Funded by New Special Taxes – Yes. This would hamper the ability of Sacramento bureaucrats to spend special taxes without restraint or accountability.
Prop. 42	Prohibit New Personal Property and Retroactive State Taxes – Yes. This is partially in response to the billionaires tax of Prop. 40. New taxes that are passed should never be retroactive (which is what Prop. 40 is attempting to do).
Prop. 43	Local Taxpayer Protections – Yes. This closes a court created loophole that created a runaround of Prop. 13's 2/3 voter passage requirement to enact local taxes (like sales tax increases, etc.). Common sense. Please vote yes.
Prop. 44	Community Health Clinic Spending Mandate – No. This is a bit complicated so let me say this would increase required spending by non-profit clinics and others that would cause a reduction in services to persons getting health care from those same non-profits. More government mandates and regulations – something we have enough of in California.
Prop. 45	Environmental Review Reform for Certain Projects – Yes. This proposition would reduce the red tape caused by environmental laws. A needed reform!

8. Who Are the Rinos?

Randy Thomasson says, “Republicans In Name Only” (RINOs) are a serious problem — passing bad bills, defeating good bills, deepening “the swamp,” and destroying the Republican Party from within.
Randy Thomasson lists 7, Greg Wallis, Juan Alanis, Laurie Davies, Josh Hoover, Diane Dixon, Heath Flora, and Carl DeMaio.
To see the RINOs in the U.S. House of Representatives and U.S. Senate you can go to:

2. Make smarter decisions in primaries
3. Share scorecards on social media to expose RINOs

In 2025, the most “consistent” RINO Republicans in the California State Assembly, in descending order, were Greg Wallis, Juan Alanis, Laurie Davies, Josh Hoover, Diane Dixon, Heath Flora, and Carl DeMaio.
